THE TIMES.

A. H. CLEMENT, EDITOR.

WEDNESDAY, MAR. 28, 1906.

WE DO ALL FADE.

Not only is Mr. Cleveland in failing health, but Senator Gorman is the victim of an incurable malady, while D. B. Hill's friends are alarmed at his condition, with Chauncey Depew on the shelf and Rockefeller mentally disfigured and disabled, his mind, gone though his money he can still call his own. Is life worth living?

Cornelius N. Bliss denies strenuously but Hamilton has the record on him. If this insurance investigation puts a check to campaign contributions the next President of these United States will be a Democrat and a son of the South also.

Some Richmond lawyer fancies that he has found a loop hole in the land assessment act which was passed by the recent legislature. This is rather novel. Real estate is generally one species of property that has to "stand and deliver." Personal holdings have a way of hiding and dodging. If the land owner escapes Virginia will no longer boast of a surplus.

It is said that the South is the dump ground for impure food. This ought not to be. Major Reid is protecting our farmers against adulterated fertilizers and why don't some competent person come to the front to procect all of us against impure food? It ought not to be a superhuman task.

Superintendent Eggleston is evidently much pleased with what the legislature did for the public schools of the State, and now that we are to have better school houses and the teachers are to be better paid of course we are going to have better work in the schools. Let heart training go hand in hand with head training and then will we have an education which will mean a blessing rather than a curse.

Tillman and Mr. Roosevelt are not sleeping so soundly under the same blanket. The President seems ready to make concessions on the rate bill and Tillman says no. He isn't made of the compromising stuff. He had rather be "right than President." We repeat that in our opinion the senior Senator from South Carolina is the most remarkable character in public life at this present writing.

They tell us that battle ships six years old are antiquated, and since it takes three years to build one of the monsters the question naturally arises 'why build at all?'

England's Dreadnaught is the monarch of the seas to-day, but Uncle Sam is at accustom. of observing his flag on any field of competition.

The Dreadnaught must be outmatched and we are the people to do it. Of course all this money should be spent on public roads, but this the statesmen(?) refuse to do.

Happy the housewife who has hens for sale. Happy the man who does'nt want to go to Congress. Happy the man who is willing to grub but who will not "graft." Happy the clerk who refuses a check for services not rendered. Happy the man whose home is his castle and for whom the club has no charms. Happy the man who has conducted his affairs so wisely as to enjoy "the glorious privilege of being independent." Happy is the man who is loyal to country, God and truth; his ways ought to be ways of pleasantness and all his paths, paths of peace.

Lynching is to be deplored all the time, anywhere and under all circumstances, but the recent Chattanooga outbreak against law was also open defiance of an express order of the highest court of the land. We sincerely lament the fact that our brothers of that grand city should have so yielded to passion as to have taken no time for thought. They must, however, have been stung to madness and while we are forced to condemn them, our hearts go out in tenderest sympathy for them. God only knows what the Southern people have had to endure.

Our New Court Terms.

Terms of court for the 5th Judicial Circuit of Virginia as fixed by the Legislature which adjourned February 16th 1906, the law going into effect ninety days thereafter or May 16th 1906:

Appomattox—First day of February, April, June, October and December.

Charlotte—First Monday in January, March, May, July, September and November.

Cumberland—Tuesday after the fourth Monday in January, April, June, September and November.

Prince Edward—Third Monday in January, March, May, September and November.

Judge Hundley will hold the April term of Court in Buckingham as the law taking Buckingham from the 6th Circuit and placing it in the 29th Circuit, does not go into effect until June 16th 1906.

Superintendent Hannah Explains.

APPOMATTOX AND BUCKINGHAM TIMES:

In your issue of this week, March 21st, I see a piece signed "Patron," that reflects on the school officials of Appomattox county, in the selection of text books for the public schools of our county. I agree with "Patron" most heartily in his general views of the single book list; but must say that had "Patron" been better informed as to State regulations for the selection of the county list, he would not have thrown out the inference, "that they are paid to have the books changed." The law of Virginia in regard to the adoption of school books, by counties and cities, is that the State Board adopts a multiple list and sends it out to the counties and cities. From this list the Board of Trustees in each county makes a list for each separate county. In Appomattox the County Superintendent appointed a book committee; consisting of one trustee from each district, to examine the State list and make recommendations to the county school Board for adoption. Was there any better or fairer way of making the selection? This committee in making the selection tried to make as few changes as possible, in order to save the expense to patrons. Now why does the expense appear, and is so heavy? It is this; nearly all the text books for the public schools have been revised to such an extent, that a book of the same title, and by the same author, cannot be used in the same class, with the old book. As soon as the new book has been published and placed on the state list, the old issue is taken off the market and cannot be had.

Now "Patron" don't censure the Appomattox school officials when they were confined to the State list just as you are confined to the county list. We have done the best we could to save the expense on the book question, which we heartily agree with you, is a heavy burden. We are in favor of the single book list for a term of at least ten or twelve years.

Respectfully,

J. K. HANNAH, Supt.

Curdsville.

The Sanstons school will close on March 28th.

Mr. R. M. Baird is greatly improving his place.

A family of Germans have built a new house near here.

The farmers around here are busy cleaning up land for tobacco and corn.

Mr. Harry Turnes paid Frank Davis a visit last week.

On April 1st.

On April 1st we will withdraw all clubbing offers for the APPOMATTOX AND BUCKINGHAM TIMES. There are just ten days left for you to send your friends, and secure for your own home one of these bargains:

Times-Dispatch, Daily and Sunday, $6.00

Times-Dispatch, Daily, $4.00

Times-Dispatch Weekly, $1.25.

New York Tribune Farmer, Weekly, $1.00

These prices will include the A & B. TIMES.

No farm publication in the country is more thoroughly practical, helpful, instructive, interesting and profitable to farmers and their families than the New York Tribune Farmer.

Attention Confederates.

The next regular annual meeting of Appomattox Camp Confederate Veterans, for the election of officers for the ensuing year, will be held at the Court House, at West Appomattox Va. on Saturday at ten o'clock p. m. April 14th 1906. All members of the camp are earnestly requested to be present. By order of Commander T. J. Stratton, J. P. L. Fleshman Actg. Adgt.

"I can heartily and conscientiously reccomend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shenick 220 So. Peoria St Chicago.

"Two years ago during a political campaign, I caught cold after being overheated, which irrated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took a dose that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflamation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council."
